

Ampelopsis brevipedunculata

Porcelain Berry

Courtesy Missouri Botanical PlantFinder

PLANT DESCRIPTION

Plant Type:	Deciduous Vine
Height / Width:	15-25 feet
Plant Form:	Vigorous, tendril-climbing
Flower / Fruit:	Greenish flowers clusters in July; showy clusters of oval (1/4") pale lilac-blue fruits in fall, mature to amethyst to porcelain blue color
Leaf Color, Size:	3-lobed, deep green to 5 in.
Native To:	Asia

GROWING REQUIREMENTS

Sunset Zones:	2-24
Soil:	Well-drained, adapts to most soils
Water:	Moderate to regular
Sun:	Sun or shade
Care and Pruning:	Needs strong support. Flowers on new growth; may be cut to ground in late winter to control growth.

GARDEN USE

Fences, arbors, walls, trellises, porches