

Aptenia cordifolia

Baby Sunrose

PLANT DESCRIPTION

| | |
|--------------------------|--|
| Plant Type: | Succulent shrubby perennial |
| Height / Width: | 6-10 in. H x spreading |
| Plant Form: | Prostrate mat-forming |
| Flower / Fruit: | Purplish red, inch-wide flowers bloom in spring and summer |
| Leaf Color, Size: | Trailing stems to 2 ft. long are profusely set with inch-wide, heart-shaped or oval, fleshy bright green leaves |
| Native To: | South Africa |

GROWING REQUIREMENTS

| | |
|--------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| Sunset Zones: | 12, 13, 15-17, 21-24 |
| Soil: | Not fussy about soil |
| Water: | Little to moderate |
| Sun: | Some shade in hottest climates |
| Care and Pruning: | Plant 2 ft. apart |

GARDEN USE

Low trailer in rock garden, on slope or wall. Also good in hanging pot.